

James V. Lavelle III, Esq., is the attorney member of the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board and the chairperson. He was first selected to serve on the Health District's Air Quality Board in 1983. He has the distinction of being the current longest standing member of the Hearing Board volunteering his time for the past twenty years. His term expires July 24, 2009.