Exhibit Highlights Talents of Two Artists Leah Craig, Janet Greek Exhibited in 'drift' Opening June 23

Artists Leah Craig and Janet Greek will exhibit their drawings and paintings during the two-person show "drift," which opens June 23 at the Winchester Gallery inside Winchester Cultural Center, 3130 S. McLeod Drive. An artists' reception will welcome the artists to the space from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., June 26. The exhibit continues through Aug. 7.

Craig has studied and exhibited locally, nationally and internationally in Australia and France and was a selected artist in last year's Zap² public art project. In "drift," Craig says she investigates "the possibility of a break in the propriety of mass communication tools that promote our world's rapid globalization." Craig is entering the Master of Fine Arts program at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts Tufts University in Boston in the fall and graduated from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in 2008 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree.

Greek has exhibited locally with the Contemporary Arts Collective, Left of Center Gallery, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas; the College of Southern Nevada and Clark County Parks and Recreation, to name a few. A substitute teacher and master's degree candidate, Greek brings a view of people and their relationships to "drift."

"I am interested in the relationship of people and environments, memory and real time," Greek said. "I use watercolor, graphite and charcoal to explore ambiguities between architectural space and the ambivalence of people passing through, fluctuating within their surroundings."

Clark County is a dynamic and innovative organization dedicated to providing top-quality service with integrity, respect and accountability. With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark is the nation's 15th-largest county and provides extensive regional services to more than 2 million citizens and 44 million visitors a year. Included are the nation's 7th-busiest airport, air quality compliance, social services and the state's largest public hospital, University Medical Center. The county also provides municipal services that are traditionally provided by cities to almost 900,000 residents in the unincorporated area. Those include fire protection, roads and other public works, parks and recreation, and planning and development. In 2009, Clark County celebrates a "century of service."
